- The post excerpts a claim from Epstein file EFTA00080475, alleging a sex trafficking syndicate called the "Ashley Madison network" used RF transmitters in hundreds of apartments to broadcast signals inducing tactile, auditory, and visual hallucinations for child molestation and harassment, including techniques purportedly applied to Epstein in prison.
- This document is part of recently unsealed U.S. Department of Justice Epstein files from 2024-2026, representing an unverified victim statement amid broader trafficking allegations, with no confirmed evidence of the described neuroweapon technology.
