emergency department the patient asked his father to take his clothing off.

The patient described having auditory command hallucinations. He stated that he followed the instruction of voices named Corey, Brandon and Courtney which told him to touch the nurses earlier today in the emergency department. He has not had these particular command hallucinations in the past and stated the absence of command hallucinations telling him to touch others sexually at the time I saw him today. He and his father reported that he drove to Ann Arbor 2 nights ago because voices told him to do so. His father said that he has been following command hallucinations with increased frequency. The patient also described hearing the voice of his ex-fiancee(is in current conflict with her) saying that she wants to rape their 9-year-old son. The patient's father states that the patient is having "increasingly violent hallucinations" but was unable to elaborate further on this. The patient endorsed having visual hallucinations of "shadows" that are "ghost like."

As per the patient and his father, the patient has slept 8 hours in the past week, has had poor dietary intake, is disorganized in his behaviors, impulsive, emotionally labile, and has racing thoughts. He reported the absence of suicidal ideation, intent or plan or homicidal ideation, intent or plan.
